
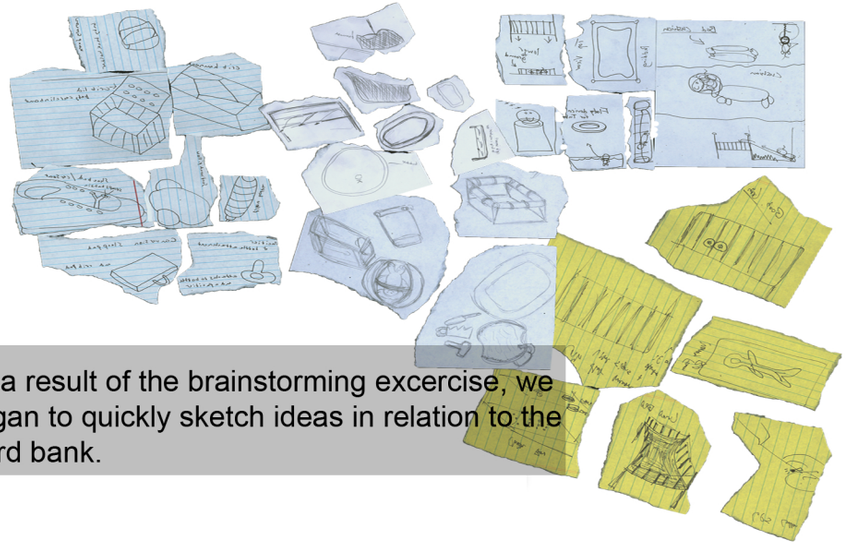
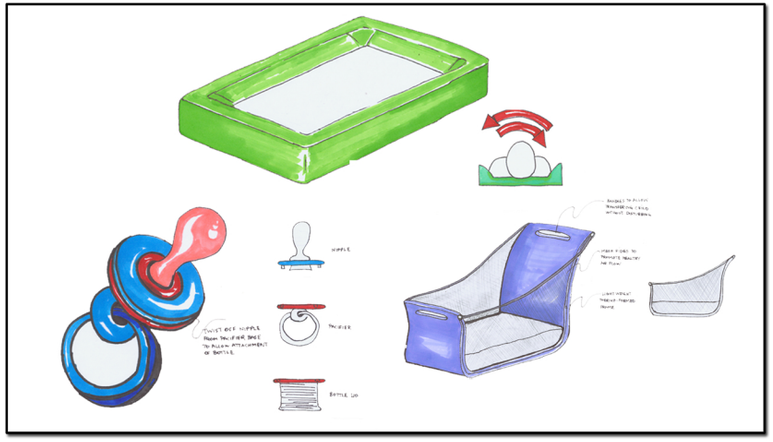
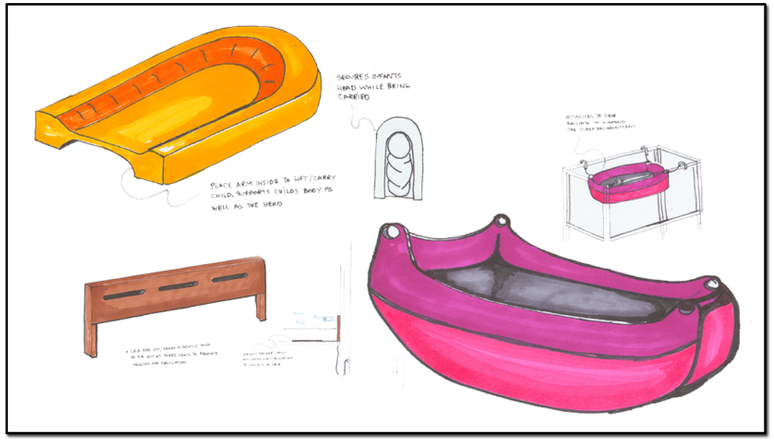
Brainstorming Excercise:
Congregating with our classmates, we began to quickly voice words that had either direct or indirect relations with the topic.



As a result of the brainstorming excercise, we began to quickly sketch ideas in relation to the word bank.





Attempting to address some of the problems associated with a childs' sleeping environment, I had looked into anything from altering how the child sleeps to altering the environment around the child.