Print & Document Services

Streamline your workplace »

Healthcare laws changing faster than your docs? Print just what you need, when you need it, with OfficeMax Workplace℠ Print & Document services.

Up-to-date print materials are essential to effective healthcare. Prohibitively expensive printing methods aren't. Today's healthcare organizations are stuck. You're forced to choose between constantly updating print materials to keep pace with changing regulations or facing the consequences and risk of providing obsolete information. This false choice results in billions of pages of healthcare documents being thrown out or becoming outdated every year. If this is how you approach the problem, you'll never win.

Fortunately, OfficeMax Workplace has a better alternative.

Digital Printing Can Help You:

- Reduce Costs
- Improve Regulatory Compliance
- Elevate Patient Care
- Manage Version Control
- Eliminate Obsolescence

Healthcare Applications We Provide (For Less):

- Emergency Admission Forms
- Patient Menus
- Patient Care Forms
- Appointment Reminders
- Illness Education Brochures
- Newsletters
- Training Manuals
- Posters/Banners

Get Total Control Over Your Print & Document Services.

Our "just in time" digital printing allows your healthcare organization to print what you need, when you need it. Our digitally networked locations allow you to migrate from the higher costs and larger production runs of offset printing to a lower cost, scalable model that precisely fits your needs.

With a simple mouse click, you can print essentials such as emergency admission and patient care forms as well as communication materials like brochures, posters or postcards—all in quantities as large, or small, as you need.

We'll Treat Your Business. You Treat Your Patients.

Although healthcare facilities differ, many have common challenges—including lack of time. That's why OfficeMax Workplace offers healthcare customers a valuable "no cost, no obligation" analysis that requires a minimal time commitment and helps you discover potential cost savings—typically in the double digits. We'll also help you become more efficient so your time is spent on what matters most: patient care.

As healthcare organizations increasingly seek out digital resources to help streamline operations, they'll find the print productivity solutions Print & Document services provide. We can help you too.

Analyze Your Furniture Options.

Healthcare providers also need market expertise on key elements such as product selection, safety, time restraints and workflow. OfficeMax Workplace responds with the resources, foresight and product offering you'll only get from a national leader.

With OfficeMax Workplace Interiors, you'll discover comprehensive product lines that address the specialized needs of healthcare facilities, including:

- Product supervision, planning and coordination
- Full design and space planning capabilities
- Your choice of in-stock furniture or Interiors options
- Delivery and installation options to meet budget and timing needs
- Leasing and financing options

Design A Plan.

Our designers work with vendors who service the healthcare industry, meet with architects and keep up with design innovation. This kind of due diligence creates an infrastructure for designing a customized solution.

We will also perform a "Needs Analysis" to identify your goals and service needs, set the budget and consider growth potential (new or existing space). We offer a range of furniture products and services, which will help you create and implement your most efficient healthcare facility. Services include:

- Space Planning & Design
- Custom Configurable Furniture Selection
- Patient Transfer
- Bariatric & Infection Control
- Caregiver Safety
- Patient Satisfaction
- Enhanced healing environments
- Signage
- Custom created whiteboards

Need It Fast? Choose From Our In-Stock Selection.

When you need office furniture quickly, you don't have to sacrifice quality and style.

OfficeMax Workplace has over 5,000 in-stock products with a range of fabric and finish options. Choose from a selection of desks, workstations, seating and accessories in leather and fabric upholsteries for:

Managed Print Services

Streamline your workplace »

If you were spending 20% more than necessary on print output, how would you know?

If you're like most healthcare organizations, you don't. And each year, print production and management is costing your organization more and more time, money and resources. Got you thinking?

Find Your Print Management Solution

Thinking about your printing is one thing. Thinking about Managed Print Services (MPS) in a whole new way is where we can help your healthcare organization streamline and save.

Managed Print Services is a scalable, end-to-end print management solution that integrates all of your devices across all manufacturers to proactively manage printing expense and increase efficiencies. Plus, we can consolidate all print and multifunction supplies, coordinate installation, as well as service and/or redeploy an organization's fleet.

Invest In Efficiency

Through a discovery method we call the OfficeMax Five-Point Transparency Process℠, our Solution Architects assess a healthcare organization's printers (from networked to desktop machine) and recommend a plan to optimize their setup. We look to uncover areas of waste and then recommend highly efficient solutions for healthcare organizations, both large and small.
