

IMF CENTER

Exhibits · Giftshop · Films

Welcome to the IMF Center's special exhibit:

Money and Sovereignty now through October 25, 2005.

Money and Sovereignty: Selections from the National Numismatic Collection developed by the Smithsonian's National Museum of American History in conjunction with the IMF Center, will be on display through Friday, October 28, 2005.

Money and Sovereignty will focus on what money has to say about the viability, legitimacy and sovereignty of a nation. The exhibit features more than 150 coins, bills and other currency dating as far back as the 7th century B.C.

The pieces come from across the globe, with a special focus on the money of Ireland, Mexico, and the European Union.

Other Exhibits

Tour the Money Matters: The Importance of Global Cooperation permanent exhibit, a self-guided tour of the history of the international monetary system, how it affects our daily lives and the role of the IMF in the global economy.

The Ancient Trade Route Coin Collection

is a historical representation of trade between ancient civilizations. Coins serve historians as markers of time. They confirm the powers in place in any given region and define the "money trails" that connected the ancient world.

Briefings and Forums

Attend economic forums and briefings by staff on the work of the IMF. The new book forum series features lively discussions and fresh perspectives on international financial and monetary issues.

Bookstore and Gift Shop

Browse our bookstore for the latest IMF publications and the most up-to-date thinking on recent economic issues.

Visit our gift shop for IMF souvenirs.

Complimentary literature.

Programs

Educational Resources

All About Money is a 5th-6th grade curriculum lesson plan that prepares students for a visit to the IMF Center to learn about money, international trade, and cooperation. The entire program can be downloaded online for use in the classroom.

<http://www.imf.org/external/np/exr/center/students/ms/mscurric.pdf>

Money Matters Curriculum for high school students, promotes understanding of the history of the international monetary system, globalization, international economic cooperation, and the work of the IMF.

<http://www.imf.org/external/np/exr/center/students/hs/hscurric.pdf>

Video Presentations

"Millennium: the IMF in the New Century" video series. Learn how the IMF is evolving as a global institution to meet the challenge of promoting macroeconomic stability, economic growth and poverty reduction. See more IMF videos at:

<http://www.imf.org/external/mmedia/index.asp>.

Interactive Web Games

Test your knowledge about the IMF, be a virtual economist and rate your score. Visit www.imf.org/center "For Students" and play:

IMF in Action • Monetary Mania • Trading around the World Where in the World & What in the World is Money?

New!

Walking Tour

The IMF, OAS and World Bank: A Walking Tour. Spend a half-day learning how these international institutions work for you.

Starts Fall 2004. Call for details.

IMF CENTER

International Monetary Fund

720 19th Street, Washington, DC 20431

Tel: (202) 623-6869 Fax: (202) 623-6562

<http://www.imf.org/center> or imfcenter@imf.org

Hours: Monday-Friday 10:00 a.m. – 4:30 p.m.

To contact the Public Affairs office
Tel: (202) 623-7300 publicaffairs@imf.org

Location of the IMF Center:

