

The Concept behind this building was Horizontal Planes. The goal was to design a loft that would fit perfectly in Marfa, Texas while remaining minimal. So I began experimenting with simple shapes and forms, while still applying all the needs for the particular artist that will reside in the loft.

