EXPERIENCE

Independent Study, Jan '13 - Present

Studying under Liz Sanders in the OSU Design Department. Focus includes evaluating how research/end-user testing and 3D prototyping can impact one another and shape the product outcome.

Design Central, June '12 - Dec '12

Intern; design research, front end brainstorming, concept ideation, sketch rendering, 3D modeling and rendering, contributed to off-site corporate innovation sessions, worked within the constraints of big clients, and contributed as an integral part of the product design team.

The Ohio State University, Oct '12 - Dec '12

Contract Designer; worked in collaboration with the Design Department, the College of Mechanical Engineering, and a private company to redesign their dilatometer machine that measures the dimensional change of various materials as a function of temperature. My contribution included user research, sketches, mock ups, and presentation to the client.
