

b

auhaus was an architecture and design school founded by Walter Gropius in Germany in 1919. The idea behind the Bauhaus style was based on simplified forms and unadorned functionalism. The style created fonts with clean, curved lines.

