SUMMER 2013 OPTICAL COLLECTION

Channelling the clever confidence of a Sinatra, titanium half-rim pairs stylish pinstripes and metal accents for retro flair. (PZ70038 C04)

The Art of Modern Italian

From antiquity, Italian craftsmen have deftly interwoven ageless sophistication with youthful vitality, be it in the finely detailed art of the high Renaissance or the impeccable contours of a well-tailored Pal Zileri suit. Represent Italy's effortless fusion of classic and contemporary. The acclaimed fashion house now brings this skill to bear in Pal Zileri's Summer 2013 Optical Collection.

A style that invoke both the flair of youth and the authority of a professional. Pairing acetate with lightweight titanium in a unique ultrathin pinstripe pattern, makes a perfect complement to a well-tailored suit in confidently distinctive colours. (Top/ PZ60038 C01; Bottom/ PZ60040 C04)

A fashionable flair with Pal Zileri's iconic tie-shaped titanium logo putting a smart spin on its subtle colour palette and comfortable spring hinge. A gradient eyefront adds a youthful touch, while a clean logo on acetate temples adds an element of refinement. (Top/ PZ60039 C04; Bottom/ PZ60035 C02)
