THE WAY I SEE IT...Indiana Winter by Dan Byler

A bag of trash still stuck to the inside bottom of the garbage can after trash pickup ... because it was frozen fast. It's that time of the year again. It's cold outside!

Actually it has warmed up a bit the last couple of days. You know you're in the middle of an Indiana winter when a breeze at 32° outside feels balmy! Walking from the car into the school without a coat on at all felt just fine.

Racing...Towards the Fence! by K.B. Middlebury, IN

One evening my brother and I were assigned to help feed the fryers. The fryers were on top of the hill and then there was a flock of fenced in turkeys on the bottom of the hill. Well, we decided to race to the turkeys. I had the bike and he was running. Soon he was ahead of me and I was not about to let him win. Ten feet from the fence I was still pedaling at top speed. At about five feet it kicked in that I should stop. I drug my feet but before I

Mandy & Andy: DUCKY NEWS

Good morning!

It's 2015. Wow, that used to seem so far away and we weren't sure we'd get past 2000. The Lord knows best and we sure don't. Ooh - it's so cold again. I remember our neighbor lady saying when the days get longer the cold gets stronger. Maybe a wife's tale, but it seems like it does get colder. We had 6° this morning and I'm so thankful for a warm cozy house. I'm hoping today I can stay in here. Yesterday was warmer, so we both worked outside all day.
