Angled Catering Bowl

Client: Sabert Consumer & Catering

Project: This angled design will be a new line of catering bowls for Sabert's catering line. The bowls will fit within an existing line of tableware, Mozaik, and will be produced in a variety of sizes and capacities. The goal of the project was to create a more contemporary and stylish option of tableware for our existing catering clients.

Dates: Nov 2007-Dec 2007

Status: in development
