

Silhouette Vase

material & process: slip cast stoneware with glaze & underglaze

The Silhouette Vase is a deconstructed vase form that can be reassembled to form a cohesive whole. The vase takes a very traditional form and turns it into something new by breaking it into 4 segments that can either stand alone as a graphic piece or can be reassembled in many different combinations.