

Creating Arrow Kites

The kites were developed with the goal of creating at least 20 to fly together. Initial experimentation looked at different forms the kite could take, first attempting to have an arrow outline, moving toward a diamond shape, and settling on a hexagonal shape with arrow graphic.