

Tabletop Ceramic Process

sketching, model-making, mold-making & slip casting for production

This page illustrates the process used to develop the Curvaceous Cup, one of the 18 items in the JFish collection. This example demonstrates the design process used for all the products on the pages that follow, including 2D and 3D sketching, final model refinement, mold making, casting, and glazing.