

Wall Pockets

material & process: slip cast stoneware with glaze & underglaze

The pockets are a series of containers for holding small succulents. The modern geometric shape has a flat bottom surface for standing on a table, and a flat back surface with a hang hole for hanging on the wall. Bright interior color adds a playful element to the linear surfaces.