

Pebble Planter

material & process: slip cast stoneware with glaze

A planter with a shape that incorporates the form details found throughout the line - hard edges contrasting with curved surfaces - into a wide mouthed tabletop piece. Holds succuents or other leafy plants with shallow root structures.