

Clove Hanging Planter

material & process: slip cast stoneware with glaze & underglaze

A series of large and small hanging planters inspired by the airplants and succulents found around the Bay Area. Hangs from a leather cord that wraps securely around the back of the piece, providing a material contrast. Hangs comfortably from a stand or a wall hook with a plant nestled inside.