Called From Darkness Into Light

We have all shared the experience of praying and looking for the perfect opportunity to share our faith with a neighbor, co-worker or relative and after carefully and patiently presenting the clear gospel message, we watch that individual reject what they have just heard. But just as God is the Giver of physical life, so it is that God is the Giver of eternal life and has a particular way of bringing that individual unto Himself.

In Doctrines of Grace, Roger Skepple takes you through the awesome process that God uses in saving someone. This book will address such important issues as: The Atonement, Eternal Security, Election and Total Depravity. You will have a greater understanding of God's overwhelming grace and love for His children that will keep you from ever taking your own salvation for granted and give you a deeper desire to start or continue sharing your faith with others.

Rev. Roger W.F. Skepple is the Senior Pastor of Berean Bible Baptist Church in Atlanta, Georgia. He earned a B.S. in Pastoral Ministries from Liberty University and Th.M in both New Testament Exegesis and Literature, and Systematic Theology from Dallas Theological Seminary. Roger and his wife, Teresa, have four children.
