

Residential Traditional

Concept

Spanish Colonial Revival Orange, CA

- This Spanish Colonial Revival Home: originally built during 1914–1940 era, from a $2,138 “Sears Kit”; a delivered package of building materials and construction plans.
- Southern California homes were built with Spanish settlement influence and a mixture of Native Americans including: Spanish stucco arch ways, red clay tiled roofs, wood flooring, stained glass windows and mission style furnishings.

First Floor / Family Room - Hand Rendered Perspective