

NOTE TO PARENTS: READ WITH YOUR CHILD EVERY DAY.

Look for books with simple pictures and sturdy pages.

Choose a good time to read, when you and your child are happy.

Stop if your baby loses interest or gets upset, then try again later. A few happy minutes are better than a long unhappy struggle.

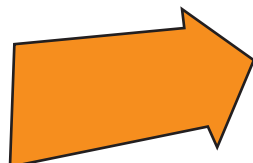

Read favorite books again and again.

Books with an E sticker are especially good for kids under 3 years.

Poetry is another genre you may want to try with children this age and can be found under the call number E/811.54.

Every week, June 4th until August 11th, there will be a raffle to enter. Winners will be notified by phone. Our volunteer or guest "Alien" readers will present informal storytimes in the Kids' World sharing corner at 3 p.m., Monday-Friday. Just drop in.

Summer Reading Booklists for all ages are available at the Kids' World Desk.
