

‘WOW’ Vows in Thailand...

DESTINATION: HUA HIN

VENUE: DUSIT THANI

Innocept Studio designed, managed and executed this 3 day wedding in July 2014. The wedding saw over 200 guests who were flown in from various parts of the world.

EVENTS

The Indo-fusion welcome dinner and ‘Casino’ themed party: The celebrations commenced with a welcome dinner which saw Thai décor as well as Thai performers who entertained the guests by performing on Bollywood songs. The Welcome Dinner was followed by a late night party, with a casino theme. The hotel’s grand meeting room was converted into a night club to match the theme of the night.

The Pool Party: The next afternoon, a fun filled pool party took place at the hotel’s poolside with many games and activities to keep their guests entertained and involved.

The Moroccan Sangeet: A Moroccan themed sangeet saw performances by family and friends of the couple. The evening also featured a special performance by Illusionist Shankar, who kept the guests entertained with his street illusions. The night ended with a heart-warming performance by the to-be-wed couple.

The Day Wedding: A beautiful day time wedding took place where the groom made his royal entry on an elephant and the bride arrived in a boat with dancing ‘Apsaraas’ escorting her.

The Spanish Reception: The magnificent wedding gave way to a grand, fun-filled reception -an all-white Spanish themed which took place at the hotel’s ballroom.

STAND-OUT ELEMENTS

The Ethereal Mid-lake Varmala: The bride and groom exchanged garlands in a spellbinding Varmala ceremony which took place in the middle of a lake, on an elevated stage with the breath-taking lake providing the backdrop for all the wedding rituals.

An FM Channel for the wedding! The couple had an FM channel dedicated to their wedding, called Rachit Weds Riddhi! Once both the families and their guests reached the Bangkok airport, everyone was transferred to Hua Hin in luxury coaches, all playing the same FM channel.

The American Dream...

DESTINATION: WEST PALM BEACH, FLORIDA

VENUE: ABACOA GOLF CLUB

World Wide Weddings, the wedding division of True Events, Ahmedabad planned, managed and executed this wedding in November 2014. The wedding saw over 100 guests from across the globe. Traditional sweets were sourced from various 'Halwais' from all across India and flown into U.S.A.

EVENTS

An Informal Sangeet: A casual sangeet celebrations took place at the residence of the groom which featured minimal décor, dance performances by family and friends along with cocktails and lunch.

A 'Desi' Wedding: The afternoon wedding celebrations took place at Abacoa Golf Club in West Palm Beach, Florida. The lavish, ritzy venue, known to have hosted weddings and social events for the crème de la crème of the city, was designed by world renowned golfer Jack Nicholas. To keep in tune with the vibe of a typical Indian wedding, a red and gold colour scheme was used.

A Black and White Reception: On the same evening, a reception was hosted by the bride and groom, for which the agency showcased a contemporary black and white theme, much in sync with the nature of the event. Cocktails were followed by dinner and an after party.

STAND-OUT ELEMENTS

A Baraat on the streets of Florida! Imagine a typical Indian Baarat on the streets of Florida with a DJ, Indian music and lots of dancing! The agency acquired special permission for people to dance on the street with a convoy of cars. It was rather a Kodak moment where American civilians were left awe struck by the whole atmosphere.
