

Martin Hillier, Global Artistic Director for Senscience

British hairdresser Martin Hillier is renowned in the international hairdressing arena for his unique creativity, vision, passion and leadership. Whether it be photographic, platform or entrepreneurial work, his ability to transform the average into exceptional is nothing short of inspiring.

Martin's the genius and artistic force behind the looks of Senscience Liquid Luxury and inspires hair stylists from all around the world. His focus, talent and extraordinary skills, as well as his charismatic presence inspire and motivate everyday. Hailing from London but now living in Canada, Martin has gained a huge volume of respect in the industry having traveled the world for Senscience, presenting his extensive hairdressing skills to an international audience of literally thousands of hairdressers. In addition, over the last decade, he has built up an impressive styling portfolio and was recently nominated for Canadian Session Stylist 2008, winning the title in 2007. Martin is also co-owner of one of the prestigious The Lounge Hair Studio in Vancouver, Canada, a highly fashionable salon that caters to the crème de la crème in Canada.

