

SECRET GARDEN

The large traditional house is no longer big enough for the growing extended family. The client desires private spaces for his brother and parents from India while allowing him and his family to have a serene modern cascading backyard. The addition has to accommodate a very steep site while giving everyone a great view of the new Japanese garden inspired landscaping and direct access to the center of entertainment, the pool house.

PROJECT DATA

size	10,000 sf
cost	1.2 million
Program	Pool House, Two Car Garage, Apartment, New landscaping, New Pool New Deck, Renovated kitchen and Master Suite
Principal	Stephen Chung
Project Role	Project Architect, Assisted in all concept design and planning, 3d modeling produced all images

