

supply chain management

HONG KONG

summer session I

Go beyond the textbook.

Photo by Jennifer Shyu, CIBER Alumnus 2010

This award-winning program offers you the opportunity to follow a series of products from the shelves of a TARGET™ store in Austin, all the way to the production source in mainland China. With visits to a TARGET™ distribution center in Texas, and port facilities in L.A., you will go beyond the textbook and see supply chain management in action, while also earning 6 UT credits at the prestigious Chinese University of Hong Kong.

supply chain management
HONG KONG

Who is eligible?

- UT undergraduates with a minimum 2.50 GPA
- Required completion of STA309 by summer of participation

What can I expect?

- Attend courses at the top-ranked Chinese University of Hong Kong (CUHK)
- Visit prominent companies and institutions in Hong Kong and Mainland China
- Learn about Chinese culture through CIBER-organized cultural activities in Hong Kong and surrounding areas
- Spend a week in mainland China with transportation and accommodations included
- Prepare for your time abroad through a series of pre-departure sessions

What about classes and credit?

OM335/OM335H Operations Management*

IB372 or OM340S Doing Business with Chinese Suppliers

IB320F credit possible, please see advisor; for BHP credit, please see advisor

For full course descriptions, please see website

What is included?

- Teaching instruction at CUHK by renowned McCombs and CUHK faculty
- Textbooks and course materials
- Housing with UT students in Los Angeles and Hong Kong
- One-week trip to mainland China including transportation and housing
- Health Insurance and International SOS services
- Full-time on site support from UT staff, familiar with the language, city, and culture
- Admission to all CIBER-organized cultural excursions
- Guidance on leveraging study abroad in recruiting
- Coaching on analytical skills to apply in future work environments

How can I find out more and enroll?

- Please visit our website at www.mcombs.utexas.edu/centers/ciber/summer
- Or stop by the CIBER office to speak to a staff member!