

GM Cardmember Service

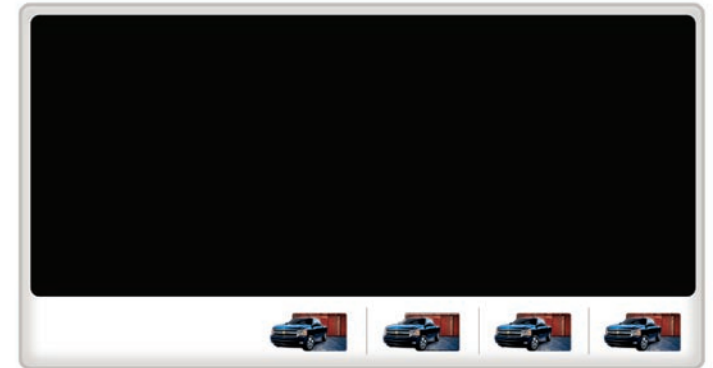

Landing Page
Button Style

The client originally wanted to keep the background image behind the cars. >>

The concept I had was for the cars to break the boundry of the button.

Final look:

The Client then decided to use car images without the background. I was pleased to hear this request because it made the curtain animation work with my original concept.

