Some experience using any version of Word is required.

September is... National Healthy Aging® Month

Healthy Aging® Month is designed to focus national attention on the positive aspects of growing older. For more info visit www.healthyaging.net.

Getting Out and About

Wednesday, Sept. 9 • 1:30PM • Meeting Room 2

Finding ways to maintain our mobility as we age can be quite a challenge. Yet being able to go places almost every day is very important for mental, physical, and emotional health. Elmhurst resident and octogenarian Everett Hammond will explain how senior citizens can find ways to maintain their mobility, even after they no longer drive.

Don't Forget! Tips for Improving Memory

Wednesday, Sept. 23 • 7:00PM • Meeting Room 2

Would you benefit from a more efficient memory?

In this educational and entertaining presentation,

Dr. Linda Sasser will teach you how to use mnemonic, visual, and organizational strategies to improve retention and recall of names, numbers, facts, and tasks.

PIANO'S FORTE: Examining the new Modern Wing at the Art Institute of Chicago

Wednesday, Sept. 30 • 7:00PM • Meeting Room 2

The Modern Wing at the Art Institute of Chicago was the largest expansion project in the museum's history. Designed by Italian architect Renzo Piano, the Modern Wing provides nearly a third more gallery space along with newly created environments for education, dining, and events. Learn about the history of this project and its relationship to Piano's larger body of architecture in this slide lecture presented by Art Excursions lecturers Jeff Mishur and Dr. Michelle Paluch-Mishur.

Learn how to download digital books!

Wednesday, Sept. 30 OR Saturday, Oct. 3

10:00-11:00AM • Meeting Room 1 • Max 20

Discover how YOU can download audiobooks and ebooks from home. Elmhurst Public Library's two downloadable book services, MyMediaMall (Mac or PC) and NetLibrary (PC), offer best-sellers that range from the Twilight series and Freakonomics, to classics like The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn and Agatha Christie mysteries. Due to the variety of MP3 players available, this workshop is demonstration only.

Knitting America: A Glorious Heritage from Warm Socks to High Art

Tuesday, Oct. 6 • 7:00PM • Meeting Room 2

As cooler weather approaches, many knitters are inspired to take up their skeins and needles. Knitting has a long history in America, and the author of Knitting America, Susan Strawn, will discuss its influences from Colonial times to the present. You are invited to bring or wear a hand-knitted garment or any hand-knitted items you would like to show at the end of the program. Join us for this fun and informative program.

Exploring Mail-Order Homes Along the Old Chicago & Northwestern Railroad

Wednesday, Oct. 14 • 7:00PM • Meeting Room 2

Sears, Roebuck and Co. sold more than 100,000 mail-order homes during the first half of the 20th century. Many of these homes are still standing today, although their owners may be unaware of their home's unique history. Efforts are being made to locate, identify and preserve these mail order homes since they represent such a special era of American history. There are many Sears homes identified so far in Illinois, including Elmhurst! Join us for a discussion with Rebecca Hunter, an Architectural Historian. Learn about these mail-order homes, and discover some of these treasures hidden in Elmhurst as well!

For Teens

We Want Your Book Reviews!

Tell us about your favorite books! Each month we'll pick a genre or topic and you tell us about a book you read in that category. Post your review on our blog (www.epiteenblog.blogspot.com) to share your recommendations with other teens.

For September: Tell us about a book dealing with high school—something realistic or funny.

For October: As part of TEEN READ WEEK 2009, write a review of a book that transports you beyond your reality! Choose from fantasy, science fiction, horror, paranormal, virtual reality, or other cultures.
