

Turégano House Variation

Case study with variations on the 1988 house design by Alberto Campo Baeza.

The house is a purist white 10x10x10m cube with twin level areas for the living and dining rooms and more compact service areas for kitchen, toilet and bedrooms.

Features Baeza's typical minimalism with an emphasis natural light captured with strategically positioned openings allowing it to travel diagonally through the house

Isometric
General Exterior View

Hong Kong, September 2011
Case study

Softwares :
VectorWorks
Renderworks
Photoshop

Interior Views - Renderings

