2006-2009

Aikido is a traditional Japanese form of self-defense established by Morihei Ueshiba. The art draws on the rich heritage of Budo, the Way of the Samurai.

It is a unique way of training the body and the soul. Anyone at any age can learn Aikido to improve their physical and Spiritual health.

We invite everyone to enter the Way of the Harmonious Spirit.

We hope Aikido students will establish their own Path to humanity and self-confidence.

Chief Japanese Instructor : Hitoshi Nagai
4th Dan at the Aikikai Headquarters, Japan classes on Mondays and Wednesdays at North Point, Hong Kong Island. On Saturdays at Sham Shui Po, Kowloon
