

HOrn Demon

Originally found gnawing at the Center of the Earth during an excavation, this Horned Demon's age is impossible to determine. With his large snapping heads and aggressive, unpredictable behavior, Megaphira is an intimidating creature to say the least, yet is loyal to hell and Satan for reasons unknown. Due to his mystical nature, he has a strange physiques and body structure. He is able to cast inferno on any objects and fly pass all obstacles that are in his path, and he is more than capable of scoring in a game like Monster Rugby. The world should be wary of this demon, lest they all freeze and shatter as they melt before his eyes.
