

features

The Hoop's design is based on the modification of a single unit. By over moulding low durometer urethane rubber in various widths onto a base nylon hoop, the difficulty of the task can be adjusted for the child by selecting the appropriate width of hoop, moving to progressively thinner hoops as skill level increases.

The materials chosen all lend themselves to be brightly coloured, and are resilient to the abuse it may suffer on the school playground.

