

WILDERNESS • MEDICAL • ASSOCIATES

May 11 – May 18, 2009

Where: UA Student Recreation Center

Cost: $525 / “Camping” at the Rec: $40

Sign up in the UA Outdoor Recreation Offices

$200 deposit due April 10, 2009

Registration includes 70-hour WFR course, course texts and materials, breakfast and lunch for each day of course, and WMA t-shirt.

Course Content:

- The General Principles of Wilderness and Rescue Medicine
- Patient assessment and emergency care
- Environmental Medicine
- Musculoskeletal Problems
- Wound Management
- Backcountry Medicine
- Practical Skills
- WMA Wilderness Protocols

Wilderness First Responder Course

Wilderness First Responder (WFR) is the ideal medical training for outdoor educators, guides, SAR team members, and others who work or play in remote areas. The curriculum is comprehensive and practical, including the essential principles and skills required to assess and manage medical problems in isolated and extreme environments. This course is offered in several formats.

70
hrs

OUTDOOR RECREATION
205-348-7045 <http://urec.sa.ua.edu>