Details

Emergency button – slightly concealed so that it doesn't accidently get pressed. Color and tactile difference to differentiate even with weak eyesight embossed for visually impaired/ colour blind emergency signal button

Pressing that emergency button sends the info to the caretaker who can then take action. Know the location they can either call for help/ ambulance or go there themselves. Also using the gps facility, the nearest hospital can be notified

Yes/No physical press buttons to preserve the familiarity for the target user Confirmation / Exit buttons scroll for navigating through the list e.g. to choose from the buses that are expected scrolling

turning on/off ASSIST/ choosing options