IMPACT UNLIMITED presents:

Brand Book Cabal:
The Book Club for Brand Communication

Using Inspiration from 5 Business Books to Improve Your Brand Communications at Live Events and Trade Shows

The face-to-face nature of events offers many advantages over other marketing channels. However, the live and harsh messaging environments for live events can make the retention of brand messages difficult.

In this fun, interactive session, we'll use five, best selling business books to present practical ways to make your messages more noticeable and more memorable. All these books have been on the annual review of Best Business Books by Harvard Business Review.

Network, have a cocktail and take home one of the books we review.

Thursday, June 4
In the Boardroom
