HO CHI MINH CITY

Ho Chi Minh City, formerly known as Saigon. The Paris of the East regained its title once again since its separation with the French colonization. This city is the heart and soul of Vietnam. Not only the largest city of the country, it is the most bustling, dynamic and industrious center of commerce, economy, science, technology and tourism, as well as a cultural trendsetter. The former Saigon boasts charming beauty and timeless tradition of an ancient culture with French colonial architecture buildings, wide shaded boulevards and pavement cafes in a bygone colonial atmosphere. Once romantically referred to by the French as the Pearl of the Orient, this city possesses various beautiful buildings, displaying a characteristic combination of Vietnamese, Chinese and European cultures.
