

be divine

designed a wine and chocolate bar for Divine Chocolates, a fair-trade Ghanaian chocolate company. Details remind the customer of their impact.

be|divine
be aware be excited be fair be kind be true be smart be happy be different be you

Hudson Furniture: Wide Walnut Sconce Hudson Furniture: Long Slim Pendants Hudson Furniture: Wide Scip Pendant Raquel Cohen: Palms Santos

en light

be|divine
the feel-good, taste-good dining experience that will leave you forever changed

Natural light from the windows falls across the floor and leads your eyes around the space. It glistens along the wooden tables and reflects off the contrasting metal chairs.

The fabrics glow, absorbing the light and giving off warmth. While it looks unfamiliar, it still feels natural, beautiful, and enchanting.

plates and mugs have details to remind customers of the positive impact of buying fair-trade products even the wine glass you drink from has a reminder etched in the surface day light

twi light

selection of wine bar

hospitality |