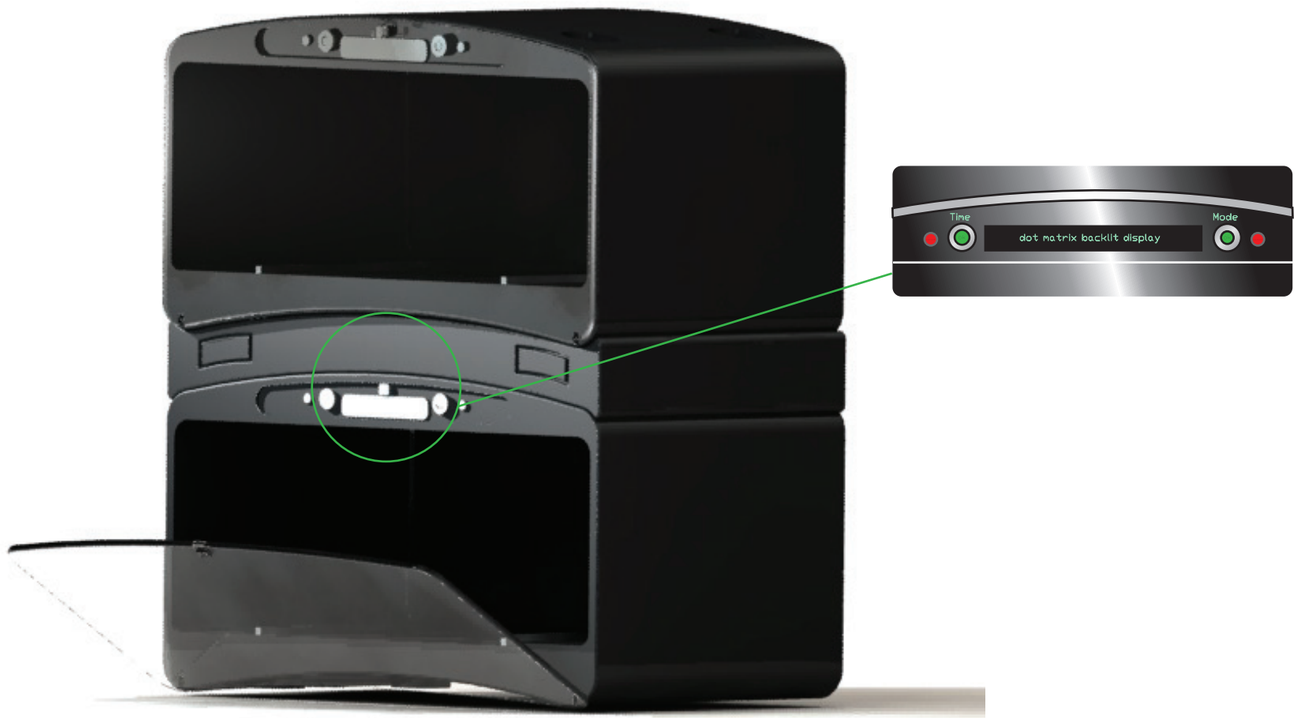
Controls



-scroll though power options and press "accept" button select power heating scheeme

-on "convection", "defrost", and "power", press -accept to select power level between 1&10.

"convection" and "warm" options will show up when unit is connected. convection power can run on auto or a user selected power level

"scan" will enable the bar code reader if it is connected.
"auto" will sense food moisture level and weight.

if the wrong food comes up, press "cancel".

press "accept" once food brand is selected.

once time and mode are selected, press "accept".
"wait" will indicate you are still adding more food to other units.
"start" will indicate that you only want to use this unit.