St. Louis, MO 63118

SouthSide Early Childhood Center's Young Friends Board is designed specifically for young professionals and graduate students.

The "Young Friends" of SouthSide is a group of active members ages 21 to 35, who endeavor to raise awareness, support and promote SouthSide's mission through a variety of social, educational, leadership and fundraising activities.

If interested and you want to learn more - see you on the 9th at The Post!

SouthSide Early Childhood Center's mission is to nurture, educate and inspire children and families with limited resources, fostering healthy development and a strong foundation for success.
