

Once upon a Fairy Tales presents...

The Chapel of Orange

Featuring all-inclusive wedding packages offering "Everything but the Ring!"

Nestled in the tree-lined, historical district of old town Orange sits the turn-of-the-century "Gothic" Chapel of Orange, built in 1909 by famed national cathedral architect Phillip H. Frohman. With its newly renovated grand ballroom and quaint charming grounds, you'll step back in time to this romantic storybook place, making it the ideal spot for your unforgettable fairy-tale wedding ceremony and reception.
