AS YOU WISH

So much of the holiday season centers on wishes – making a few, collecting even more and granting as many as possible. With that in mind, we’ve put together a few wish lists of our own, hoping they might help with some of yours.

Gifts organized into under- and over-$50 will help you stay within your budget (perhaps even allowing you to grant one of your own wishes!). Just look on our Something for Everyone pages (p4-7). And in true Talbots tradition: cashmere, cashmere, cashmere (p8). Look for it in both bright and pastel colors: sweaters, cold-weather accessories, and splurge-worthy luxurious cashmere loungewear.

The season also centers on graciousness. Being the hostess, being the charming guest, what to wear, what to give. To that end, you’ll find our signature holiday tartan and rose print – they bring an air of nostalgia and more than a hint of reimagination to dresses, skirts, shoes and perfect gifts.

Quilted puffers and bags (p18), supersoft sleepwear (p24), and layer after layer of sweaters and tees, all thoughtfully designed to surprise, delight, and make their holidays that much more special. We hope this inspires you to make many wishes come true, to finish your lists early and to fulfill that wish we all have: more time to spend with good friends and family.

As you wish,

Trudy

 THE INSIDE STORY.

Our designer's fondest holiday memory? An eight-year-old boy tugging on his mother's bright wool skirt, looking up to see her smiling face. Inspired by the hostess skirt she'd unfailingly wear every year, our designer reimagined this favorite silhouette with striking details. You'll see, it's a skirt worthy of starting your own holiday memories.

“adore
this ore”

A pattern commonly associated with the clans of Scotland, tartan takes shape in this long, slim silhouette, a bit of a departure from its characteristic kilt style.
Here, impeccable tailoring and classic details make this skirt fit for the holiday season and beyond.
