OUR PICK OF THE TWEETS

@AVMitchell2010 (Austin Mitchell MP) Bring back Lawson as chancellor. He's learned sense on EU and he knows how to get a boom going

@DAlexanderMP (Douglas Alexander MP) While Cameron fights to keep his party in-line on EU economic crisis is ignored

@DouglasCarswell (MEP) I get name checked by Nigel Farage in Telegraph as wanting to quit EU. That's next month's local leaflet sorted

@BSheermanMP (Barry Sheerman MP) #lawsononeurope end of world is nigh global warming nonsense EU a disaster all on best possible evidence

@SJacksonMP (Stewart Jackson MP) If I'm successful in Private Members Bill ballot my Bill will be EU (Referendum) Bill to give the British public a say in our EU membership

@SteveBakerMP Good for Lord Lawson. The EU is a manifestation of the flawed political economy which created this crisis

@mikeweirsnp Maybe we should demand answers from the Tories as to whether we would be allowed to play Euromillions if UK leaves EU. #scarestorylatest #YES

@Keith_VazMP An in / out referendum before the next election would clear the air. We could actually hold it on the day of the next general election. #EU

@GlynDaviesMP Just trying to get my head around Ukip MEPs voting against a cut in the EU budget - bit like turkeys voting against a ban on Xmas!
