Patsy Vork started rosemaling in the mid-1970's when she took a class with Lynn Nelson in St. Paul, MN. In the early 1980's, she rosemaled at Vesterheim with Olav Tveiten, Karen Jensen, and Sigmund Aarseth. From the mid 1980's to 2011, she taught school, leaving very little time for painting. Following her retirement in 2011, she cleaned her brushes and found that they still worked. Although she is essentially a Telemark rosemaler, she recently took a Hallingdal class from rosemaler Irene Lamont at the Ager House in Eau Claire. Patsy lives in Chetek with her family and pets.
