

GREEN BAY PRESS-GAZETTE

A GANNETT COMPANY | GREENBAYPRESSGAZETTE.COM

SUNDAY | FEBRUARY 16 | 2014

PARTLY SUNNY | High 19 | Low 9 | DETAILS, D9

WELCOME TO THE
NEW, IMPROVED
PRESS-GAZETTE
AND MORE

Good morning. As you hold today's paper in your hands, you probably notice something different about the Green Bay Press-Gazette. Some of the changes are subtle, some impossible to miss. Welcome to the world of MORE.

MORE, as in more local news, more regional news and more national news. Beginning today, our team is thrilled to be bringing you great content from USA TODAY every day. It's a partnership that will change the look and feel of the Press-Gazette, and I think you will really enjoy all the additional local news we will bring to you in the world of MORE.

» See MORE, A6

USA TODAY | GREEN BAY PRESS-GAZETTE

Meyer mojo

Officials: Venue expansion could help keep people downtown

By Richard Ryman
Press-Gazette Media

The new addition to the Meyer Theatre, Backstage at the Meyer, will provide more options to customers and more income to the theater.

Meyer management on Friday announced a $3 million renovation of the former Daily Planet building, providing the theater with a banquet area, a second stage, a catering kitchen and office space that can be leased. It also would increase its endowment fund by $1 million and invest $500,000 in theater maintenance.

"It's going to add a whole new dynamic," said Matt Goebel of PMI Entertainment Group, general manager of the Meyer, 117 S. Washington St.

The Meyer, which is on the national and state registers of historic places, hosts more than 170 performances a year. Goebel said it draws about 70,000 people to downtown Green Bay annually. Each of those numbers would increase if Backstage at the Meyer is fully developed.

Backstage at the Meyer provides an opportunity for year-round use, much as the

» See MEYER, A6

INSIDE

Learn about features of MORE

A guide on how to navigate the newly remastered Green Bay Press-Gazette, including information on new features. C8, 9

CLASSIFIEDS F1
LOTTERIES A5
SPORTS C1

OBITUARIES D5
PUZZLES E8, F4
TELEVISION E8

CONTACT US

NEWSROOM(920) 431-8400
SUBSCRIPTION(877) 424-5042
ADVERTISING(920) 431-8300
ONLINE.....(920) 431-8211

COPYRIGHT 2014

$2.00
See Page A3 for pricing details

-On 7/8/13 at 11:00 am, Surveyor #15523 conducted a telephone interview with Resident #1. Resident #1 stated the following, "I didn't like Longview, (Administrator A) was very mean and rude to me. One time he pushed me into a tree, another time he pushed me on the pavement and I had red marks on my elbow. One time he threatened me with a baseball bat and said if I every hurt anyone he will hit me on my throat with the baseball bat."

On 7/02/2013, Surveyor #26802 and Surveyor #15523 interviewed Resident #6 at the facility. Resident #6 said, "We're incompetent, no body believes us. We got no body...I'm terminally ill, I want to live my life out happy and in my own place. This place looks right, but there is no quality here. We are all inmates, not residents."

Resident #3 said regarding Administrator A "If had my way about it he would be history in a hurry." When asked why, Resident #3 said, "There are so sure...When I first came here I had quite a go around with him...We didn't get along...Now I keep my distance...He gets away with quite a bit of stuff...He thinks he's God."

CRIES for HELP

STATE ORDERS COUNTRY HEALTHCARE TO CLOSE FACILITY DUE TO ALLEGED ABUSE, UNSAFE CONDITIONS; COMPANY APPEALS RULING

By Adam Rodewald | Press-Gazette Media

MORE INSIDE

» Assaults lead to temporary admissions ban at Oconto assisted-living facility, A11.

The state has ordered a Suamico assisted-living facility to close after inspectors found physical and mental abuse of residents at the hands of the facility administrator, a registered sex offender.

Former Longview Terrace Administrator Jason Tegge is accused of taunting and hitting residents, many of whom are mentally ill or struggling with addiction, during his tenure at the facility, according to inspection records obtained by Press-Gazette Media from the state Department of Health Services Division of Quality Assurance.

» See HELP, A11

LONGVIEW TERRACE TIMELINE

FEBRUARY 9, 2013

Longview Terrace I resident runs away, begs neighbor to call police and report abuse.

JULY 17, 2013

State inspectors conclude investigation substantiating abuse and 13 violations at Longview Terrace I.

DECEMBER 30, 2013

State issues second order revoking the license at Longview Terrace I. Appeal remains ongoing.

MARCH 6, 2013

State inspectors find "condition of substantial risk" at Longview Terrace I and requires plan of correction.

JUNE 3, 2013

Complaint made by former employee alleging Longview Terrace I Administrator Jason Tegge abused residents.

SEPTEMBER 6, 2013

State orders the license revoked for Longview Terrace I. Owner Debra Tegge appeals.

SEPTEMBER 25, 2013

Inspectors return for another complaint investigation and find 14 violations at Longview Terrace I.