

Creating my font

I used monotype corsiva as the foundation for my font. Then I manipulated it using the warp, pen and spiral tools. I focused on the proportions and the smoothness of the curves. I found it easier in the end to use the pencil tool to create spirals. Then repeated several ellipses and rotated them to create a simple flower and incorporated this. Finally I added some dots for extra decoration.

