

Trunki, childrens lunch box project

Here are some first ideas looking at, permanent layers, combining the water within the lunch box and an easy open lid. After our research we found these areas needed further development.

