

The second annual Brown Folk Festival is scheduled to feature student, faculty, and local acts in an effort to bring together the Brown, RISD, and Providence community through a day of music and lightheartedness. The festival will include all day music, a number of workshops, a constant open jam area for anyone interested, local vendors, and a nighttime contra dance to wrap up the day.

Saturday, May 1st

Brown

Lincoln Field

168 Thayer

Folk Festival

All day
FREE

www.brownfolkgfest.org

Main Stage Schedule

11:00-11:20: Stephen Higa and Octavia Crompton

11:30-11:50: ARRR!!!

12:00-12:20: Contest Winner: Joshua Garcia '11

12:30-12:50: Detroit Rebellion

1:00-1:30: Marjorie Thompson

1:40-3:00: Singer-Songwriter showcase

3:15-4:00: Two Time String Band

4:00-4:45: Fishing with Finnegan

5:00-5:45: Sean Kennedy Band

6:00-6:45: Pawtucket Mudd

7:00-7:45: Tallahassee

8:00-8:45: Last Good Tooth

Workshop Schedule

11:00-11:45: Sacred Harp

12:00-1:30: Sunday Night Jammers Dance Workshop

9:00-12:00 Contra: Swin Down, with Lucia Watson calling