

Glucose Monitor System

User Testing

to determine the most effective and most comfortable shape

-Curves around ear in a comfortable way to monitor your glucose levels non-invasively.

-Will verbally alert you if your levels are getting too high or too low

-Also allows you to listen to music

-Does not look like a hearing aid or any other medical device

