

The Music of Jewish Composers:

Sundays at 2:00 pm:

November 14, 2010

December 12, 2010

January 9, 2011

Fischlowitz Center (Social Hall)
Temple Adat Shalom
15905 Pomerado Rd., Poway, 92064

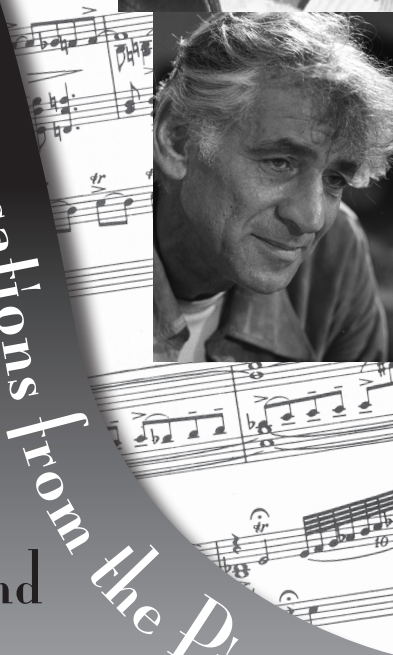

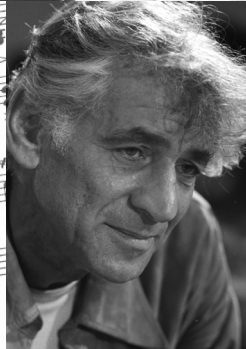

Dr. Steven Cassedy
Guest Speaker, Pianist and Professor of Slavic and Comparative Literature
UCSD

Coral MacFarland
Thuet
Jazz Vocalist

Conversations from the Piano

Enjoy three enlightening and entertaining afternoons featuring the above performing works by. . .

George Gershwin - The Jewish immigrant who bridged the gap between classical & jazz

Richard Rodgers - With Lorenz Hart and Oscar Hammerstein II wrote some of the best-known songs in American popular music

Leonard Bernstein The supreme musical composer-conductor-showman continually returned to his Jewish roots in his music.

TAS members - $10/session or $25 for series. Non-members. $12/session or $30 for series.
Checks should be made out to Temple Adat Shalom and mailed to/dropped off at the Temple office.

