YOUR FAMILY'S USAA LEGACY BEGINS WITH YOU.

★ Share the benefits of USAA while protecting your valuable personal possessions.

As a veteran who has received an Honorable discharge, you're eligible for membership in USAA. Once you become a member, it opens the door for your children and future generations to become members, even if they never serve! You can begin your legacy with USAA Valuable Personal Property Insurance and the extraordinary benefits it offers:

For as little as $4 a month, you'll have $2,500 of coverage<sup>2</sup> for your valuable personal jewelry, such as rings, necklaces, earrings, bracelets and watches, that may not be covered under your current homeowners policy if lost or stolen.

You'll provide your eligible family members with a legacy of exceptional products, service and value that they can enjoy by supplementing your current insurance with this important coverage.

➤ BEGIN YOUR LEGACY TODAY. CALL 877-699-2654.

USAA products are available only in those jurisdictions where USAA is authorized to sell them. <sup>1</sup>To establish membership in USAA, eligible members must purchase USAA auto or property insurance. <sup>2</sup>$4 a month policy provides $2,500 on scheduled jewelry. Rates may vary due to location. Use of the term "member" or "membership" does not convey any legal, ownership or eligibility rights for property and casualty insurance products. Membership eligibility and product restrictions apply and are subject to change. To be eligible for auto and property insurance, separated military personnel must have received a discharge type of "Honorable." Eligible former dependents of USAA members may purchase auto or property insurance if the member obtained USAA auto or property insurance. Valuable Personal Property insurance provided by United Services Automobile Association, USAA Casualty Insurance Company, USAA General Indemnity Company, and Garrison Property and Casualty Insurance Company, USAA Limited (Europe), San Antonio, TX. Each company has sole financial responsibility for its own products. The American Legion receives financial support from USAA for this sponsorship. © 2015 USAA. 213328-0215
