

Chatter | Salt and Pepper Shakers

These two salt and pepper shakers silently interact, a first year form exercise in pink foam developed into a second year side project in learning to model in Rhinoceros. In third year, the project was developed further through resin cast models. Where it will go next who knows....

