ONE OF AMERICA'S MOST FAMOUS IMMIGRANTS
NEVER ACTUALLY
MADE IT TO AMERICA.

Vladimir Smirnoff wanted to see the New World.

He wanted to conquer it—just as his father had conquered Old Russia before the Revolution. But it wasn't to be. He died in 1934 just as he was about to visit the U.S. for the first time. But fortunately for us all, Vladimir did make provisions for his legendary vodka to be made in America. Within years, the Smirnoff name was dancing on everyone's lips. So while Vladimir may have never walked on American soil, his spirit certainly did.

Clearly Original. Clearly
