

Inspiration

Inspired by the majestic Alaskan night skies the jagged light is designed to subtly recreate the idea of jagged light. This modern-contemporary lamp captures the light and creates a warm, soft surrounding dispersing the light in a jagged formation.

Features:

The head of the lamp is 360° rotatable allowing you to face the light where you please. The body is made from a combination of Stainless steel and Acrylic, with minor detailing in ebony.

