

Challenge

This began as a foundation project asking us to design a dog crate which can fit into a specific interior and serve as a functional piece of furniture. It was revisited in another class where we were asked to go through the steps of bringing a product to market.

Inspiration from modern children's rooms is reflected in this dog crate by the use of repeating circular elements and rounded form.

The flat surface on the top of the crate provides a useful surface within the room.

Photo by Mark Serr